

2019 ANNUAL REPORT

THE CUESTA FOUNDATION

Eric B. Oliphant ▲ Gregory W. Oliphant ▲ Jamie D. Oliphant ▲ Thomas J. Oliphant ▲

Areas of Support

The Trustees of the Cuesta Foundation authorized $147,500 in grants to organizations and institutions primarily in Tulsa, Oklahoma in 2018

Arts, Culture & Humanities	$62,500
Community Development	$5,000
Education	$49,000
Health & Wellness	$2,500
Human Services	$25,500

Mission

The Trustees of the Cuesta Foundation want to bring joy to their communities and its citizens by funding charitable organizations that are serving mankind by assisting people who are in need and who have a desire to better themselves. Organizations that can demonstrate this philosophy will be considered above all others.

Cuesta Foundation will support operating expenses and capital needs of qualifying organizations.

The Foundation's area of emphasis are Arts and Humanities, Education, Social Services and Community Needs.

History

The Cuesta Foundation was formed on May 16, 1962 by Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Oliphant and his Sister, Mrs. Allene O. Mayo, to continue the philanthropic legacy of their father, A.G. Oliphant.

Community Projects

Major philanthropic accomplishments of the Cuesta Foundation include: The University of Tulsa's Oliphant Hall and the Oliphant Chair in Mathematics, the Tulsa Children's Museum, the Tulsa Zoo and Oklahoma Aquarium exhibit expansions, and Crosstown Learning Center's continuing education for teachers.

Application Timeline

- Letter of Inquiry - March 31, 2019
- Grant Application - June 30, 2019
- Grantmaking Meeting - July 2019
- Fund 2019 Grants - August 2019