

CUESTA

Foundation, Inc.

2021 ANNUAL REPORT

HISTORY

The Cuesta Foundation was formed on May 16, 1962, by Charles W. Oliphant and his sister, Allene O. Mayo, to continue the philanthropic legacy of their father, A.G. Oliphant.

COMMUNITY PROJECTS

The University of Tulsa Oliphant Hall and Oliphant Chair in Mathematics, The Tulsa Children's Museum, Tulsa Zoo and Oklahoma Aquarium exhibit expansions, and Crosstown Learning Center's continuing education for teachers.

MISSION

The Directors of the Cuesta Foundation want to bring joy to their communities and its citizens by funding charitable organizations that are making a long-term impact and serving mankind by assisting people who are in need and have a desire to better themselves. Organizations that can demonstrate this philosophy will be considered above others.

The Cuesta Foundation's areas of emphasis are Arts and Humanities, Education, Social Services and Community Needs. The Foundation will support operating expenses and capital needs of qualifying organizations.

Preference will be given to organizations in Tulsa, Oklahoma.
